A STOCK OF 100,000 BOTTLES

2

There is a lot of choice among the more than 100,000 bottles currently held in stock here in Montenegro. It's not just Bordeaux, Burgundy and SuperTuscans — although there is a lot of that — but a really diverse range of wine. You can find some lovely wines from other regions of France and Italy, some amazing German and Spanish wine, as well as an incredibly delicious sake (Sōtō Junmai Daiginjo) and what is probably the world's finest Tequila (Fortaleza).

A SIMPLE DELIVERY PROCESS

There are no more restrictions on timing and quantity when you provision wine and spirits. Boats no longer need to provide documentation or wait for customs inspections. It's as simple as this:

Step 1: You order.

Step 2: We deliver.

So please have a look through this catalogue and let us know what you want — and where you want it — and we will bring the wine to you.

NEED HELP CHOOSING SOMETHING?

Don't hesitate to ring or email us. Our local wine consultant has extensive experience with wine, holds the WSET Diploma and would be delighted to help you find great pairings for your menu, choose some interesting local wines or select a brilliant alternative should we not have a specific request in stock.

AVAILABILITY, RETURNS & CORKED BOTTLES

All wines are subject to availability. This list is accurate at the date indicated on the cover, but some wines may sell out over the course of the summer. We are happy to advise on current stock levels at any time, and please ask us for a revised copy if necessary.

We regret that, once delivered, we cannot accept returns or refunds. However, if a wine is found to be corked (it still happens, sadly, and is a production fault: the result of the primary cork tree being infected with an unpleasant - though harmless - compound called trichloroanisole) please re-seal the bottle with the original cork and return it to us as soon as possible for testing. We will of course replace or refund any legitimately corked bottle.

... AND OF COURSE

Please enjoy alcohol responsibly. Never drink and drive (even boats)!

THE WINES - TABLE OF CONTENTS

This year, we are offering a simplified catalogue so that choosing your wine is easy. The wines are organized primarily by region, though with Champagne and sparkling wines first, and then all rosé, since these categories “transcend” region.

As we are often asked for local suggestions, we’ve put together a “best of” selection of wines from Montenegro and this side of the Adriatic. You probably can’t get these back home, so why not try a few bottles while you’re here?

Obviously, this is not a large section, so we've included some extra info and imagery. In the future, we hope to expand this category as we really love sake and it pairs so well with a whole range of food.

Meanwhile, we will tell you a little bit about this one:

Made from finely polished rice and pristine water, Sōtō's Junmai Daiginjo sake is refined and delicate. Named after the Japanese word for "outside," Sōtō embraces a field-to-bottle philosophy that has won it numerous awards and accolades at tasting events worldwide since its launch earlier this year.

In addition to using ingredients of the highest quality, Sōtō sake's captivating formula can also be attributed to the expertise of its 'toji' (traditional sake brew master), who's managed to distill the characteristics of sake in the most elegant way.

To do its creation justice, Sōtō turned to the New York-based designer Joe Doucet to create an equally alluring bottle. Doucet was inspired by the deep-rooted history of sake in Japan and designed a sophisticated yet playful label that experiments with opacity to give a modern edge. The organically textured and UV-coated glass bottle is also wrapped in denim fabric at its neck for a further twist on its traditional image.

Soto has a refreshing, soft mouth-feel with subtle fruit including fresh apple and lime zest with a hint of cucumber. With a dry finish, it is best enjoyed chilled... straight up or in cocktails.
